KENTUCKY DERBY
FESTIVAL

2010 Derby Festival Royal Court Requirements

An Applicant Shall:

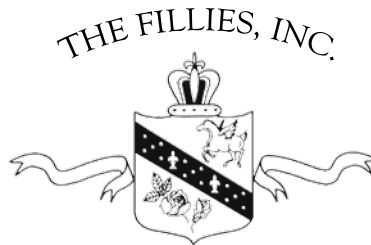

1. Be a single female resident of the Commonwealth of Kentucky or Louisville Metropolitan Area (Floyd, Clark, and Harrison Counties of Indiana).
2. Be at least 18 years of age on or before December 31, 2009.
3. Be a full-time student attending a University, College, or an accredited professional school for the full current academic year with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale. Verification is required from the school registrar's office.
4. Be aware that the Kentucky Derby Festival and the final judges are looking for five young ladies who will represent the Festival in a positive way, and the judges will consider:
  - a. Personality
  - b. Intelligence
  - c. Values/Civic Activities
  - d. Total Appearance
  - e. General knowledge of the Kentucky Derby Festival and Current Events
5. Be willing to abide by the guidelines of the Royal Court if selected.
  - a. Attend all scheduled functions and fulfill the responsibilities of each event beginning with the official Fillies Derby Ball and They're Off! Luncheon two or three weeks prior to the Kentucky Derby. After that, it is a very busy schedule for the fourteen to twenty-one days prior to the Derby. Some events are very early in the morning. There are some as early as February and March, which are "come if you can." A Royal Court reception is scheduled for February or March. A mother/daughter luncheon, a required function, is planned for February or March where specifics are given for the activities. Final exams for classes often conflict with the Court's duties, so you must consider this and arrange your exam schedule accordingly.
  - b. Have a long, white evening gown that is not provided by The Fillies, Inc.
  - c. Be a team player - everything is done as a group.
  - d. Must be available for meeting the press and photo sessions.
  - e. Expect to pay your own transportation expenses to and from Louisville for the Derby Festival events.
  - f. Upon notification of her selection as a Princess or Alternate, she must elect whether to:
    - I. Accept that selection and withdraw from any other beauty or talent competition to be held during the 2-3 weeks of Kentucky Derby Festival
    - II. OR give written rejection of her selection as a Princess or Alternate.
